

NEBOSH International General Certificate

Who can take this course?

The course is suitable for:

- Anyone who wish to work in the field of health and safety.
- Managers, Supervisors with health and safety responsibilities.

Entry requirement

There are no specific minimum qualification prescribed for attending this course. However, it is important that learners have a suitable standard of English language skills in order to understand the concepts and to perform well in the assessments.

NEBOSH recommends that learners undertaking this qualification should have a minimum standard of English equivalent to an IELTS score of 6.0 or above.

SYLLABUS SUMMARY

IG1 - MANAGEMENT OF HEALTH & SAFETY

Theory based paper with open book assessment.

IG2 - RISK ASSESSMENT

Risk assessment project to be done based on our practical experience from the workplace.

Details about the course syllabus are given below:

UNIT 1. IG1

1. Why we should manage work place health and safety?
2. How health and safety management systems work and what they look like
3. Managing Risk –Understanding people and processes
4. Health and Safety monitoring and measuring

UNIT 2. IG2

5. Physical and Psychological health hazards
6. Musculoskeletal health
7. Chemical and Biological agents
8. General workplace issues
9. Work equipment
10. Fire
11. Electricity

Assessments

The qualification is assessed for two units.

Unit 1 - Open Book Examination with a scenario based question paper.

Unit 2 - Risk Assessment. Practical assessment.

For Unit 1 digital assessment learner must complete the assessment and upload answer sheets within 24 hours from the exam start time. The digital format is an open book examination which, unlike an invigilated paper- based examination, allows learners to sit their NEBOSH assessment in their own home or another safe and suitable location.

Go to the following link to get more information on the Digital assessment:

<https://www.nebosh.org.uk/digital-assessments/certificate/resources-to-help-you-prepare/>

For unit 2, you will be given a week's time following the examination date to submit practical risk assessment.

Closing interview

We will contact you to complete closing interview based on your unit 1 digital assessment. Everyone must attend this closing interview and answer the questions to verify that it was a genuine work done by you on the digital assessment.

Declaration of results

Result declaration date is mentioned on the assessment registration confirmation which is sent to your registered email id. It will take approximately 45 working days for the results to declare officially.

Parchment

If you successfully pass both the units then you will get your parchment within 20 working from the date of result declared.

Contact Brainingsafe for more information.